A note from the Pastor

Does God exist? And if He does what kind of God is He? It seems like questions like these have been asked of me a lot lately by several different sources. How do I believe the Bible when science proves it false? (It doesn't). If God is so loving, why does He punish good people? (He doesn't). How can I believe in a God that I can't see? (I can see).

Those are not simple questions, nor do they have shallow answers. However, they should not stump the believer. 1 Peter 3:15 says that as we honor Christ as Lord, we are "always being prepared to make a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you." Are you prepared to give a defense? Most of us don't feel prepared!

There are two reactions to 1 Peter 3:15. The first is defeat. Many Christians retreat from intellectual conversations out of fear of being humiliated. They don't have answers so they don't like questions. The second reaction is investigation. Questions are not our enemy! Questions lead us to seek out answers. Read the Bible. Talk to Godly friends. Study what faithful theologians are saying. Learn answers so that you are better prepared!

The second reaction is the only appropriate reaction for the believer. Instead of cowering at the question, "is Christ Lord?", it places in our hearts, "Christ as Lord." So get in your Word. Talk to unbelievers and let them ask questions. And use those questions as motivation to study for yourself and grow in your faith.

Our missionary family of the month is our friends in Central Asia.

Missions
Spotlight

Our friends have been in Central Asia for a year. Prayer request include continued diligence in language learning, opportunities to share their faith and their talents, the local fellowship as they try to start a new location, boldness in their relationships with friends, and for the kids to continue to make friends, enjoy school, and learn the language.

FBC does not support our friends financially because they are supported by the Southern Baptist Cooperative Program. However, we have pledged our prayer support to them and the Mission Board asks that you remember this family as they minister to Central Asia.

The Trustees have placed a list of cleaning suggestions on the bulletin board.

If you have some time and are willing to help, please look the list over. In order to reduce the duplication of service, we are asking you to put the date beside any item you complete.

In addition, if you see something else that you feel needs attention feel free to clean it and put a note on the list.

We appreciate your willingness to serve in this way.
